

International University of Health and Welfare (IUHW) Group Outline of the Scholarship program for Certified Care Worker (Class of 2024)

1. Objective of the Scholarship

This scholarship is to support studies in Japan for students who are currently studying Japanese in Southeast Asian countries, and have a strong will to work in the welfare field in Japan and their countries after graduation.

2. The outline of the Scholarship

【NARITA Course】 (2-year program)

IUHW Narita Campus, Certificate Program for Certified Care Worker (2 years)
(Narita City, Chiba Prefecture, Japan)

The Narita Campus offers a global learning environment, with a unique curriculum and many international students, in collaboration with the International University of Health and Welfare Narita Hospital. This is a course for fostering Certified Care Workers.

<https://narita.iuhw.ac.jp/gakubu/cw/>

【OKAWA Course】 (3-year program)

IUHW Okawa Campus, Japanese language program (1 year)

+

Ohkawa Nursing & Welfare College, Department of Care and Welfare (2 years)
(Okawa City, Fukuoka Prefecture)

Ohkawa Nursing & Welfare College was founded in Okawa city, Fukuoka in 1990. The college has been training over 1,400 students and producing talented graduates for medical fields.

<https://ohkawa.takagigakuen.ac.jp/course/ccw/>

※IUHW will allocate you to one of the courses based on the selection result.

3. Coverage of scholarship

① School Fees

Scholarship will cover Tuition fee, Admission fee and other expenses related to studies.

【NARITA Course】 JPY 1,830,000 (2 years)

※Inclusive of JPY 1,680,000 of Chiba Prefecture Care Worker Study Fund
(One of the Social Welfare Corporation in IUHW Group will be a guarantor)

【OKAWA Course】 JPY 2,448,000 (3 years)

Details : IUHW Japanese Language Program (1 year) JPY 723,000

Ohkawa Nursing & Welfare College, Dept of Care and Welfare (2 years) JPY 1,725,000

※Inclusive of JPY 1,680,000 of Fukuoka Prefecture Care Worker Study Fund
(One of the Social Welfare Corporation in IUHW Group will be a guarantor)

②Dormitory Fee                      Full dormitory fee                      ※Utility expenses are your own cost
(2 years for NARITA Course, 3 years for OKAWA Course)

③Travel expenses                      Airfare from your country to Japan

4. Requirements and Note

- ① Comply with School codes and regulations and completion of required credits for graduation.
- ② Work at Care and Welfare institution of IUHW group after graduation for five years (paid the same level of Japanese employees)

※All or part of the Scholarship must be returned, if above requirements are not met.

※There is a transitional measure for the students who graduate from training school for certified care worker before 31/3/2027, that will be able to work as certified care worker for five years without passing/taking a national examination of certified care worker. After continuously working as certified care worker for five years, it is able to work as certified care worker indefinitely after that.

5. Other support

- ① Student loan for living expenses (No interest)
- ② Medical expense assistance (In the case of having medical care at medical facility within the group)
- ③ Providing information on part-time jobs in the group

6. Eligibility

High school graduate or higher

Japanese language ability equivalent to JLPT N3 or higher

7. Commencement     April 2024

8. Selection process

- Screening of the application documents
- Interview (in Japanese)     ※Written examination, if required

9. Application documents

①Application Form (Photograph required and fill in all the columns)

Downloadable from the following URL / QR code

<https://admissions.iuhw.ac.jp/internationalstudents/kaigo-guide-jp.html>

②Proof document(s) of Japanese language ability

(Certificate and scores of JLPT, NAT-TEST, etc.)

③Certificate of graduation from High school or University

10. Submission     25 August 2023 ~ 10 September 2023

(Acceptable the e-mail which was sent on and before 10 September)

Send the application documents to the following address.

info-kaigo@iuhw.ac.jp     ※Use PDF file for attached documents.

Inquiry : International University of Health and Welfare,
Tokyo Headquarters Office

E-mail : info-kaigo@iuhw.ac.jp

(Reference)

About Certified Care Worker

Certified Care Worker is a national qualification in Japan in the field of nursing care set under the Certified Social Worker and Certified Care Worker Act.

The term "certified care worker" as defined in the act means a person with expert skills and knowledge who uses the degree of "certified care worker" to engage in the business of providing care for a person with physical disabilities or mental disorder and intellectual disabilities, that make it difficult to lead a normal life and providing instructions on caregiving to the person and the person's caregiver

The role required of a certified care worker to provide personal care only to the provision of support to the daily living of the care recipients, including elderly people, disabled people and others, through the involvement in their lifestyle and overall life needs and implementation of the measures toward their self-sufficiency along with their family members.

1. Physical care

Grooming · Eating · Bathing · Elimination · Movement

2. Assistance with housework · Meal preparation · House cleaning · Washing clothes · Shopping etc.

3. Mental care

Providing companionship · Organizing recreation · Motivating communication with others
· Consultation about nursing care

The acquisition of certification is to prove their high knowledge and technique, which has advantage for getting stable jobs.

Assistance with bathing

Assistance with getting in a car

Performing exercise